Patricia Leslie, Ph.D. MSW ("Pat")

Consultant at Urban Initiatives and the Regional Task Force on Homelessness

Pat is celebrating her 41st anniversary of experience in addressing housing and homelessness issues in Southern California. The combination of a Ph.D. in Social Policy and Research (Loma Linda University), her Masters' in Social Work (University of Chicago, Social Service Administration), and direct practice with both public and private give her a strong base for understanding the collaborative work of non-profits and the public sector.

Through her consulting work at Urban Initiatives and the Regional Task Force on Homelessness, Pat Leslie currently provides grant writing, strategic planning, technical assistance, training, and problem-solving to housing and homelessness organizations, to CoCs, and to various non-profit organizations in Southern California. The community has recognized Pat's contributions with local, state, and national honors and awards.

This presentation provides an overview of Anti-Discrimination Policies and a brief introduction to the Equal Access Rule.

These topics are tied to HUD Regulations and are part of a series that HUD asks about in the annual CoC Competition.
